

Les Parcellaires De Saulx Beaune Les Prévoles 2018, A.C.

Pinot Noir
Burgundy, France

Release: April 03, 2021

John Szabo, MS

This is a substantial and structured, very stony Beaune, with an uncanny flavour of wet limestone allied to ripe but fresh red and some darker berry fruit, Tannins are tightly-knit and fine-grained, though abundant, and will need a couple of years to unwind and relax. There's an impressive level of detail and precision, with neither excesses nor shortages; wood is a minor feature, while terroir looms large. Best after 2023, or hold into the late '20s-early'30s. Tasted October 2021.
