POMMARD
1<sup>ER</sup> CRU "CLOS BLANC"

POWERFUL AND SUAVE

THIS "CLIMAT"

The adjective "Blanc" (white) refers to the colour of the soil in this plot, which is located on the former Combe de Pommard alluvial cone, where white gravel is predominant.

TERROIR

The "Clos Blanc" parcel is located on the edge of the Grand Crus route on the way into Pommard and in the continuation of the "Grands Epenots" with deep, iron-rich clay-limestone soil.

TASTING

Appearance: Intense ruby red

Bouquet: Intense with notes of black fruits, smoke and spices

In the mouth: Fulfilling, with a pleasant vanilla sweetness, rich with a very silky texture, lingers in the mouth with a very elegant gingerbread finish
