

LES PARCELLAIRES

de Saulx

CORTON
GRAND CRU "LES PERRIÈRES"

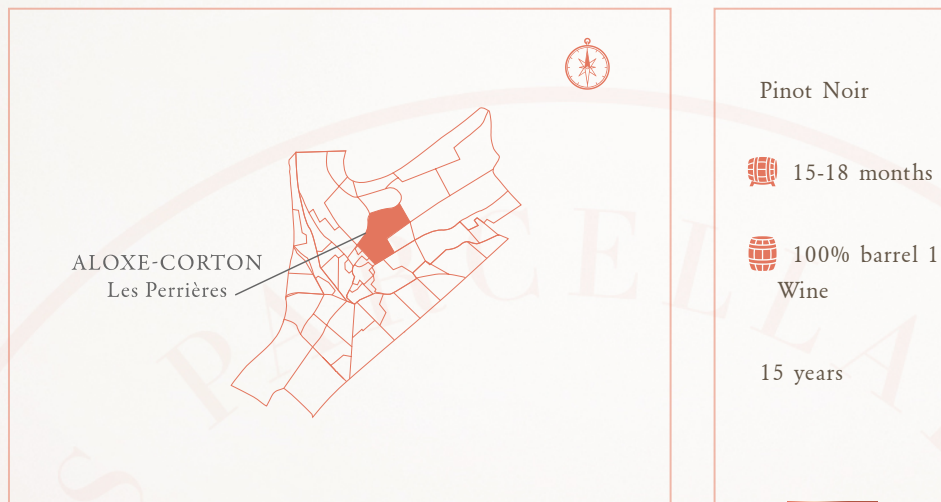

HARMONIOUS AND DELICATE

THIS "CLIMAT"

This Climat's name comes from the old Les Perrières quarry, which is hidden by the Château de Corton Grancey.

TERROIR

Located on the hill in Corton at an altitude of 273 metres, the "Les Perrières" Climat is south-east facing on brown and red clay soil.

TASTING

Appearance: Ruby with garnet tints

Bouquet: Elegant, subtle and delicate with a pleasing complexity combining nutmeg and pepper notes

In the mouth: fresh, complex with silky tannins and pleasantly long in the mouth, ample and round with cherry and liquorice flavours. Very fresh finish with silky tannins, harmonious and full of delicacy.
