MEURSAULT
"LES MILLERANDS"

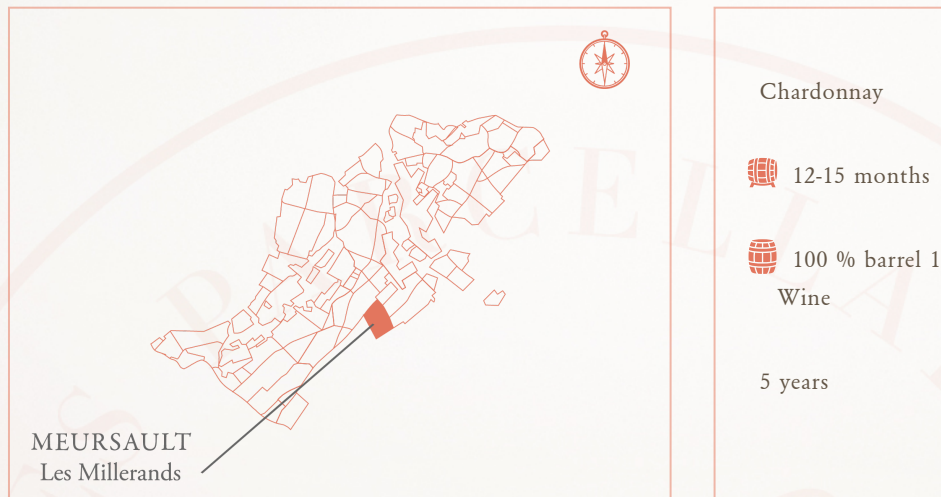

MINERAL AND GENEROUS

THIS "CLIMAT"

This climat is at the exit of Meursault in the direction of Puligny-Montrachet next to climate Under the Velle. In earlier times millet was grown on this parcel, which gave it its name.

TERROIR

Located at the bottom of the hill, this climate rests on blond clay-limestone soil dotted with small pebbles.

TASTING

Colour: Yellow gold, limpid and brilliant

Nose: Delicate, floral with notes of white flowers

Mouth: Nice combination between tension and fat, ample first mouth with a beautiful rich and elegant material, supported by a beautiful minerality with notes of flint and flint, a remarkable tension.
